Revival in Public Interest | Takes Slack Out of the Grain Market.

(3) singe. HI. March 19.—Notwithstanding that profit taking by numerous holders gate the wheat market a material setback today, the effect was only transient. Purchasers for strong houses soon took the slock out of the wheat market and earried quotations upgrade. War preparations by the United States government had a tenderic to encourage the built and so too, had administration offorts to eliminate as far as possible the dangers to American shipping.

Paso vs. Will L Watson, former county tax collector, and sureties on the bond which Mr. Watson gave while in office was started Tuesday morning in the resenting the defence submitted a re port in which, upon behalf of their client, they denied all charges of short-

The trial is a civil case to recover oproximately $18,000, which Watson a alleged to be short in his accounts. The sureties are R. M. Dudley, F. M. Murchison, H. D. Camp, Cyrus Jones, Lee Orndorff and Henry Seggerman.

Lee Orndorff and Henry Seggerman.

Claim Watson Not Indebted.

The attorneys for the defence alleged that if proper allowance is made for credits and commissions due Watson when he was in office it will be shown that he is not indebted to the county.

Say County Still Owes Watson.

During the opening of the trial Tuesday morning the attorneys for the defence told the jury that the testimony which would be introduced would not only show that the defence was not in debt to the county but would prove that the county of El Paso still owed him for services rendered.

Aranda First Winges.

Aranda First Witness. Aranda First Witness.

Christopher Aranda, deputy county clerk, was the first witness called and he testified as to the records relative to receipts issued by the cierks office for monies paid to the county treasurer.

Tax Rolls Introduced.

The next witness, G. W. Huffman, former county tax assessor, was on the stand during the morning. Practically the entire morning was taken up by attorneys representing the defence in objections to introducing in evidence the tax rolls. Judge P. R. Price, after lastening to the arguments of the attorneys for the county and defence ruled that the tax rolls should be introduced. The tax rolls were then introduced as testimony and read.
